FEATURED ARTIST - LAURA ROBB

"To me, the unlimited compositional possibilities in still life are endlessly entertaining."

Laura grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma and entered art school at the age of sixteen. In 1974 Laura moved to New York City to study with Michael Aviano and after returning to the Southwest received critiques under Richard Schmid.

She has exhibited in numerous shows and received many awards, most notably the John F. and Anna Lee Stacy Scholarship. Since moving to Taos, New Mexico in 1986 Laura's travels have taken her to France, Spain, Guatemala, and across the United States.
